

It's Time to Put the New Awareness into Action

Living in Alignment With Your True Design

REAL TOOLS FOR THRIVING

If so, then join Mark Stanton Welch for a timely and unique experience of remembering...you. Reconnect with your original design. Reacquaint yourself with forgotten capacities. Reawaken your sensitivity to the expanded you. Raise your personal vibration to greater clarity.

There will be information. There will be much activity. There will be music, chant, sound work, use of mantra, intentional singing and spoken word. We will clear your energetic system and reactivate the inner knowing, the design that contains your personal guidance and roadmap to thriving.
